

We are happy with the New Jersey "Do Not Call" law as is, and wish you would not do anything to change or cancel it. We have known such peace of mind since it went into effect and would not like to have it put us back into the chaos of unwanted calls.